Welcome Message

Ohio TESOL President,
Milena Varbanova

On behalf of the Ohio TESOL Board, I'm excited to welcome you to this year's conference, From Lau to Now. As we reflect on the lasting impact of the Lau v. Nichols Supreme Court decision, which affirmed the right to language access in education, we also celebrate the progress we've made in supporting English learners. The case serves as a powerful reminder of our collective responsibility to ensure every student has the resources they need to succeed. Thank you for your unwavering dedication to the success of English learners across Ohio. Your passion and hard work make a real difference in the lives of so many students, and I'm truly grateful for all you do. Your commitment to fostering inclusive learning environments makes a profound difference in the lives of students and their families.

The landscape of education continues to evolve, and so do the needs of the students we serve. May this conference inspire new ideas, strengthen our sense of community, and motivate each of us to continue championing the success of English learners in Ohio and beyond. As we come together to celebrate our shared mission, let us honor the progress we've made while also acknowledging the work that remains to ensure every English learner thrives. I hope you find this year's conference both rewarding and enriching, leaving with renewed hope for the future and a strong belief in the difference you are making.

Thank you for your hard work and for being part of this important journey.

Ohio TESOL History

Established: 1977

Simple reasons drove the formation of Ohio TESOL in 1977. By uniting as a professional association of like-minded individuals, we sought to gain strength and knowledge. Each individual has limitations in terms of ideas, expertise, and strength. However, we can all benefit from the collective union by coming together.

Ohio TESOL is dedicated to advancing scholarship, sharing knowledge, and improving English language instruction. Above all, we are committed to fostering a supportive learning environment for speakers of other languages and dialects, a mission we share with like-minded groups within the state.

Present: 2024

Ohio TESOL is dedicated to advocating and promoting professional development, interaction, and leadership in the field of TESOL within the state of Ohio. We share the values of promoting respect for the native cultures and languages of all citizens and students, which aligns us with you, our audience. In 2024, Ohio TESOL rolled out three new grants: Mini-Grants for Educators, Coursework Grant, and Scholarship Grants, introduced Colleague's Chats a way for individuals to discuss hot topics, advocated for students and educators, and continued to partner with the Department of Education and Workforce to bring you information about screenings and assessment.

Thursday

Opening Events

7:45 - 9:00am

(Ballroom) Keynote Presentation, Diane Staehr Fenner, Ph. D.

In this interactive keynote, you will reflect on Lau v. Nichols and the sense of urgency around unlocking multilingual learners' potential. You will explore SupportEd's five core beliefs for equitable and excellent ML education and discover practical tools you can use to leverage MLs' strengths and celebrate their assets. You will discuss the role of advocacy and leadership in fostering a culturally responsive climate for MLs and hone your leadership skills to empower MLs and support their and their families' well being. No matter your role, you will take away at least one new idea or tool to support you in your professional growth and leave with a plan to foster your multilingual learners' success.

Opening Events

9:00 - 9:50am

(Ballroom) Advancing Ohio's English Learners Resources, John Riley, Assistant Director of Office of Whole Child Supports, and Ohio DEW staff.

This interactive session will provide participants with the opportunity to explore resources on the Advancing Ohio's English Learners' webpage through the lens of K-12 demographic data.

(Hickory 1) AdultEd State of the Profession, Christy Schaffner, Program Manager, Aspire/AEFLA, Ohio Department of Higher Education

Dive into the evolving landscape of adult education and refugee support in Ohio. This session explores the intersection of immigration trends, refugee resettlement efforts, and the critical role of adult education programs in empowering learners. Learn about national and state initiatives shaping the field, discover professional development opportunities, and gain insights into how educators and stakeholders are driving meaningful change for diverse communities.

Thursday Session A

10:00 - 10:50am

(A1: Birch1) Higher Education State of the Profession, Jennifer Fennema-Blum

This session examines the current state of TESOL and applied linguistics in Ohio's higher education landscape. With a focus on Intensive English Language Program (IELP) enrollment data, participants will explore trends impacting the field, including shifting demographics, enrollment challenges, and evolving student needs.

(A2: Hickory 2) Promoting Student Interaction for Every Lesson, Christina Terrell

This interactive session guides teachers through preparing and scaffolding instruction to provide frequent and meaningful opportunities for students to interact, process and produce. Presenter will share evidence-based strategies. Participants will engage in activities to practice, interact and incorporate into instruction.

(A3: Dogwood 4) Shaping Global Impact: Insights from English Language Programs Alumni, Vendor Session, Alison Camacho, Carol Lucas, Ryan Good, Carla Bailey, Anna Lurie

Learn how to make a global impact through U.S. Department of State teaching projects. Engage with alumni to explore the profound effects of their work abroad and the personal and professional growth they experienced.

(A4: Ballroom 2) Supporting Newcomers in Secondary Schools, DEW Session, Jason Scragg

This session will provide statewide data on newcomers that arrive during secondary education. Information and resources will be shared on topics including international transcripts, grade placement, secondary education options, and navigating graduation requirements.

(A5: Cypress 2) An Overview of Annual Reporting Practices for Title III Administrators, Erica Stone and Jessica Sullivan

In this session, participants will learn how to meet Title III compliance and requirements in annual reporting practices. Resources will be shared on where to access guidance from a federal and local level.

(A6: Hickory 1) Doable Differentiation: Time and Sanity Saving Strategies, Kristine Dobransky

Are you or your colleagues feeling overwhelmed with the task of differentiating so many classroom assignments, novels, assessments, etc. Come to this session to learn about my favorite AI tools and other websites I use to differentiate classroom assignments. Bring a laptop so you can explore the sites I present!

(A7: Northpoint Ballroom) Start, Stop, Go On: Engagement Strategies You Can't Live Without, Helen Vassiliou

Embrace the opportunity to equip yourself with new strategies to improve your teaching and student learning. Be prepared to engage in activities that you can take back to increase retention of concepts taught. Start something new, stop some negativity and go on being awesome with practices that allow ELs to be successful in our schools.

Thursday Session A

10:00 - 10:50am

(A8: Ballroom 1) Sharing the Journey: Helping Content Teachers Understand the EL Experience and Best Practices for Success, Sarah Dellinger

In this interactive workshop, participants will explore, contemplate and discuss an English learner's journey to address an incredibly important question, "How can we help content teachers understand the EL experience and show them strategies to support this student population?"

(A9: Cypress 3) Providing Accurate and Appropriate Language Services to Families through Interpretations and Translations, Marie Kobayashi and Milena Varbanova

This session will provide an overview of districts legal obligations, tips, and tools to provide accurate and appropriate language services through the use of interpretations and translations.

(A10: Ballroom 4) Sound Bites! Building Phonemic Awareness for ELLs K-12, Kara Brill

Looking for engaging strategies to boost phonemic awareness with your students from a variety of language backgrounds? This session offers bite-sized, practical techniques to enhance language skills with your ELL students K-12!

(A11: Dogwood 2) Teachers' Two Cents on Project-Based Learning with English Learners: Promises and Pitfalls, Elizabeth Faulhaber and Selena Ramanayake, Ph.D.

What do experts think? We present perspectives of Project-Based Learning (PBL) with English learners from teachers in the trenches. We explore possibilities and challenges as well as "next steps" on the path to perfect projects!

(A12: Cypress 1) Cultivating Community through Curriculum and Student Leadership, Jennifer Edwards

This presentation will demonstrate practical strategies to build an inclusive classroom community through activities, routines, and curriculum integration. Discover examples from a secondary English Language Development classroom and a student ambassador program that foster language acquisition and holistic student development.

(A13: Ballroom 3) Reimagining Vocabulary Instruction for English Learners, Loretta Ayers

EL students need foundational strategic literacy skills to build reading comprehension. This presentation demonstrates a variety of play-based instructional strategies and recommendations to teach complex vocabulary in an elementary setting. Participants will learn to implement learner-centered, interactive, and engaging vocabulary instruction that aligns with the Science of Reading.

Thursday Session B

11:00 - 11:50am

(B0) LUNCH SESSION ONE

(B1: Ballroom 2) Unlocking the Power of Words: Strategies to Support Comprehension, Carolyn Turner

In this session, we will develop an understanding of the role of vocabulary in developing reading proficiency and explore effective strategies and activities for teaching vocabulary. This session blends research and classroom practices. Educators will be left with tools to teach vocabulary in any content area.

(B2: Dogwood 1) "Never judge a person by his appearance": Spotlighting English learners' use of gender-neutral pronouns, Hanzhong Sun

This proposal features four parts regarding gender-neutral pronouns in English, including what gender-neutral pronouns are, why they matter, how learners of English used these pronouns in their writing, and finally, how language practitioners should incorporate them into pedagogy.

(B3: Ballroom 3) Writing: The problem isn't grammar, Jennifer Fennema-Bloom

What is keeping your students from being exceptional writers? Hint - the problem isn't grammar. This presentation provides practical straightforward information on how to employ Grice's Maxims to substantially improve the quality of your students' writing production.

(B4: Northpoint Ballroom) AI-Powered Language Mastery: Integrating ChatGPT for Effective Teaching and Autonomous Learning, Edna Lima, Qianqian Zhang and Shorouk Ahmed

Explore how ChatGPT enhances language teaching for Arabic, Chinese, and Portuguese. This session discusses practical integration strategies to improve lesson planning, foster learner autonomy, and create engaging, personalized educational materials. The strategies discussed here can be applied to any language.

(B5: Cypress 2) Are They Listening?: It's Time to Speak Up!, Ellen Adornetto

National Title III funding is a root issue for states, districts, educators, and parents in their efforts to meet the needs of English Language/Multi-Language learners. Educate yourself on the history of funding, where there is the potential to advocate for change, and some examples of when and how.

(B6: Ballroom 4) Ohio English Language Proficiency Screener (OELPS), DEW Session, Paula Mahaley and David Brauer

The presenters will provide an overview of the OELPS and will highlight enhancements for the 2024-2025 school year. There will be time for questions and answers.

(B7: Hickory 1) Teaching Writing to Newcomers, Brenda Custodio and Judith O'Loughlin

This session will look at how EL and mainstream teachers can help newcomers develop their writing skills at the same time they are developing their reading proficiency. Specific strategies will be provided for helping newcomers from the pre-writing and drafting portion of the writing process through to editing and publishing.

(B8: Ballroom 1) Using Drama & Theater Games to Prompt Task Based Language Learning, John Haught
Theater games and role plays are great tools to encourage Task Based learning. Explore the research and gain practical ideas for using these fun and engaging activities in your classroom.

(B9: Cypress 3) Power of Advocacy and the Transformative Potential of Embracing Change, Katherine Mikita and Deborah Mikita
As EL teachers, we aim to empower students and amplify their voices. This session will offer strategies for integrating into a school system and being a voice for ELs. A toolkit for creating a school-wide action plan will be shared.

(B10: Birch 4) Bring The Village to the Schoolhouse - One District's Multi-Prong Approach to Family Engagement, Janis Bellon, Ana Martinez, and Kelli Perrin
This session will demonstrate how one district used its equity goals to change its approach when reaching out to stakeholders. The session will also discuss the importance of community partnerships to create engagement opportunities and the necessity of creating a cadre of parent leaders from underrepresented communities

(B11: Hickory 2) "Special Session with our Keynote Speaker" Integrating SEL for MLs: Pathway to Language and Content Acquisition, Diane Staehr Fenner, Ph.D
Social-emotional learning (SEL) is being embraced like never before as a means to address multiple challenges facing students. However, SEL is not one-size-fits-all. Before integrating SEL into classroom instruction with MLs, we must consider how to tailor it to MLs' unique strengths and needs. In this interactive session, you will define SEL and discuss its importance for MLs, explore our new culturally responsive SEL for MLs framework, and apply a range of practical strategies to embed social-emotional skills that foster MLs' academic success and well being.

(B12: Birch 1) Assets not Deficits. Empowering newcomers by leveraging their strengths to improve student outcomes.
Vendor session, Adelfio Garcia
While newcomers face unique challenges in their journey of second language acquisition, leveraging what they bring to the classroom can significantly impact student outcomes. Participants will gain a deeper understanding of how to honor, celebrate and affirm the cultures and languages of their students and leverage those assets to help students meet content standards while acquiring language proficiency. Participants will take a deep dive into the practice of personalization and differentiation through an asset-based approach.

(B13: Dogwood 4) Easy as ESOL, Hannah Davis, Janelle Walters, and Shirley Evans
Easy as ESOL focuses on creating a dynamic student-centered environment where learners use language through discussions, group work, and problem-solving activities. Techniques will include a variety of interactive activities to promote communication, critical thinking and real-world language application.

(HI): Cypress 2) Fostering Ownership & Motivation in ELs and All Learners, Kelly Miller and Tammy Metcalf
Join us to learn about the intersection between personalized learning and research-based instructional practices for culturally and linguistically diverse learners. Learners will interact with learner profile tools and identify strategies for implementation with all learners.

(HI): Cypress 1) EMIS and English Learners, Patricia Fong
Are you an EL administrator who needs insider information on how your EL student and teacher data is provided to DEW? Do you ever think there may be a language barrier between you and the EMIS coordinator? If you answered "yes" to either of these questions, then you don't want to miss this session!

EL program administrators and EMIS coordinators need to "speak the same language" in order to ensure data is clean and accurate. This session is intended for EL administrators and others who need to know how ELs and EL educators are reported to DEW for funding and accountability purposes. Topics also include enrollment and withdrawal of ELs and EL teacher licensure/certification requirements for both intervention and core courses.

Presented by a former EL administrator, this session will help eliminate the mystery behind EMIS reporting and provide pro tips for how to break down language barriers and develop systems for accurate reporting.

This session will provide an overview of the federal and state legal guidelines for selecting EL programming at the district level, identify contextual factors which need to be considered in the decision-making process, and discuss some program-evaluation strategies.

(L9: Ballroom 2) Make It Stick: The Use of Imagery for Vocabulary Learning and Grammar Instruction, Tonya Mohamed

Even though students are carefully taught new material, they have difficulties retaining that information. This session explores imagery to help transform new vocabulary and abstract grammar points into concrete and personalized material to enhance comprehension and retention of new information.

(L10: Dogwood 2) Maximizing English Learner Participation in the Seal of Bilingualism, Alisa Jones

English (EL) and heritage language learners are an often-overlooked demographic of students who could obtain the Seal of Bilingualism. This session will present how two departments in a large urban district have developed a system for identifying, recruiting and supporting ELs & heritage language speakers as they pursue the Seal of Bilingualism.

(L12: Birch 4) Q & A with the Urban 8 and Special Guests, Dr. Jobi Lawrence, Dr. Claire Jones, Kelly Perrin, and other members of OH 8

Join this session to interact with leaders of K-12 English learner programs in Ohio's urban schools! Hear about professional development resources from Dr. Jobi Lawrence of Project ASSETS. Meet with colleagues from Springfield, Princeton City Schools and more. This session, facilitated by Dr. Claire Jones and Donna Villareal from the Ohio Department of Education and Workforce will energize and anchor your next steps as we approach the end of the conference day.

(L13: Cypress 3) Engagement and Interactions in an ESOL Adult Class, Erika Rivera and Djibrirou Kane

In an adult ESOL class, engagement and interaction involve active participation through discussions, group work, and role-playing. Learners practice speaking, listening, reading, and writing in real-life contexts, fostering communication skills and building confidence.

(L14: Birch 1) Engaging Families: The Key to Long-Term ELL Success, Vendor Session, Jannette Long & Kristina Rowe

Supporting students means supporting their families! This session explores actionable strategies to engage English Language Learner (ELL) families, strengthen school-home partnerships, and foster a learning environment that empowers students. Learn how effective family engagement can boost student achievement and flip your state report card.

The Ohio Education Association's (OEA) EL Cadre is a specialized group of educators who work to support the success of English Learners (ELs) across the state. Members of the EL Cadre are typically teachers and professionals with expertise in working with multilingual learners and a deep understanding of culturally and linguistically responsive teaching practices.

We promote equitable educational policies and practices to ensure English Learners have access to quality education and the support they need to succeed. We engage in professional development, advocacy, and other outreach activities. We develop instructional materials and strategies that address the unique needs of English Learners.

If you're involved with EL education, the OEA EL Cadre can be a great resource for professional growth and networking!

Are you seeking extra funds for a classroom project, or are you eager to enhance your skills with a college class in TESOL? Are you excited about attending the 2025 Ohio TESOL conference? Don't miss out on the fantastic grants that Ohio TESOL provides to support our dedicated members! Take advantage of this opportunity to elevate your professional journey.

Dear Ohio TESOL Community,

Please allow me to express my heartfelt gratitude.

First, thank you to all our presenters who shared their expertise, insights, and passion. Your dedication to advancing multilingual learner education has left us inspired and energized.

To our attendees, thank you for your engagement, curiosity, and the many ways you contribute to this field. It is a joy to see the connections, ideas, and collaborations that emerge each year from this event.

A sincere thank you to our exhibitors. Your participation is vital to the success of this conference, and we deeply appreciate the resources, innovations, and expertise you've shared with our community.

To my fellow board members, we made it! Thank you for your sincere contributions that support the TESOL community.

Thank you to all of the volunteers, Nationwide Hotel and Conference Center Staff, and other partners who worked tirelessly behind the scenes to bring this event to life. Your hard work and commitment made all the difference.

Becca, though you prefer to be thanked with the term "behind the scenes," I would be remiss if I did not acknowledge your tireless efforts and behind-the-scenes magic that make everything we accomplish possible. (Don't worry, no one is reading this anyway. :)

Finally, let us leave reminded of the spirit of Lau v. Nichols—a decision that affirmed the rights of multilingual learners and set the foundation for the work we do. Fifty years later, the torch is in our hands. Let's carry it with purpose and passion, ensuring every child receives the education they deserve.

Here's to the work ahead and the lives we'll impact together. Safe travels and see you next year!
